DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 4-7, 16 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Pope et al.

In regard to claims 1, 5-7 and 16, the Pope et al. reference discloses a "fluid transfer system" (see Fig. 3) comprising a "fluid storage means" 40, a "target" 12, a "conduit" (14 and 36), a first "flow control means" (defined by the "PUMP" in Fig. 5), a "sensing means" (meter 56), a second "flow control means" 57 and "processing means" 50, as claimed.

In regard to claims 4 and 20, see "vapor line" 34.

Claim 21 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Pope et al.

In regard to claim 21, the Pope et al. reference discloses a "fluid transfer system" (see Fig. 3) comprising a "fluid storage means" 40, a "target" 12, a "conduit" (14 and 36), a first "flow control means" (defined by the "PUMP" in Fig. 5), a "pressure sensor" 57, a "vapor line" 34 and "controller" 50, as claimed.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-21 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-18 of U.S. Patent No. 6,698,461. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the method and apparatus claims are commensurate to one another.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The Stotemyer et al. and Sugano et al. references pertain to fluid transfer systems using load cells and pressure sensors, similar to the Applicant's invention.
